He enlisted in the U.S. Naval Reserve on 16 July 1951. Following completion of Officer Candidate School, Newport, R. I. on 24 July 1953, he accepted an appointment as Ensign, USNR. Since receiving his commission, he has served aboard two salvage vessels as a deep sea diver and operations officer.

(b) That Lieutenant(junior grade) Milk has submitted a request for acceptance of his resignation for the good of the Service and to escape trial by general court martial, under other than honorable conditions following confrontation with a charge and specification alleging participation in a homosexual act with an unidentified enlisted man in San Diego, California, in April 1953.

Ref: (a) SECNAV INSTRUCTION 1620.1 of 5 Jun 1953

Encl: (1) Statement of subject officer
(2) Psychiatric evaluation of subject officer
(3) Sample CCM Charge and specification on subject officer
(4) Resignation of subject officer

1. In accordance with the provisions of reference (a), an investigation was made by the District Intelligence Office regarding information that subject officer was involved in acts of homosexuality. Reference (b) is the complete report of that investigation. Enclosure (1), the statement of Lieutenant (junior grade) Milk, enclosure (2), psychiatric evaluation, enclosure (3), sample charge and specification, and enclosure (4), resignation, are submitted herewith in compliance with reference (a).

2. Upon being confronted with sample charge and specification, enclosure (3), and offered the alternative of submitting his resignation or being recommended for trial by general court-martial, subject officer executed his tender of resignation, enclosure (4).

3. The Commandant considers retention of subject officer in the Naval Reserve, whether on active or inactive duty, would not be to the best interests of the Navy, or of the individual concerned. Neither is it considered that trial by general court-martial would be in the interest of the naval service or the public.

4. It is, therefore, recommended that the tendered resignation be accepted and Lieutenant (junior grade) Milk administratively separated from the naval service.

I, Harvey Bernard HILL, [redacted], have been interviewed by [redacted] in the presence of [redacted], who I have identified themselves to me as Special Agents for the Office of Naval Intelligence, that I am to be interrogated concerning my suspected homosexual conduct. I have been further informed that I do not have to make any statement regarding this matter and that any statements made by me may be used in any future court martial. I hereby make the following voluntary statement with full knowledge of my rights under Article 31 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice and it is made without any threats or promises made against me or any promises having been extended to me.

I first engaged in a homosexual act in about April 1951 while I was stationed on the USS [redacted] (AKA-7). This act occurred with an unidentified sailor at a hotel in San Diego, Calif. I met this sailor in a "gay" bar in San Diego. We drank together for awhile and later engaged a room at a hotel and he [redacted] a "blow job". By "blow job" I mean that he took my penis in his mouth and performed a sex act on that manner. A few weeks later I engaged in a similar sexual act with a sailor I had met in the Hotel Grant Bar, San Diego, Calif. I do not know the name of this sailor. We occupied a room at a nearby hotel and he gave me a "blow job". I have engaged in acts of "69" on approximately six occasions. These acts occurred either in a hotel room or an automobile. By "69" I mean each person took the other's penis in his mouth at the same time. I do not recall the full names of the other participants. One of the [redacted] with [redacted] at NAS, San Diego, whose first name was [redacted]. He was about 5'10" tall, weighed about 185-190 lbs and had straight black hair. I believe that [redacted] was stationed aboard the USS [redacted] or an auxiliary ship of that type.

Subject is sane, competent, responsible and able to defend himself by trial if necessary.

He admits to homosexual activities in the Navy, but denies that he ordinarily is subject to urges of the nature and does not feel that it will ever be a problem in the future. He describes symptoms of nervous tension especially while aboard ship and apparently feels fairly content regarding discharge from the service. He shows no particular evidence of anxiety during the interview and makes a fairly normal impression except for moderate immaturity. He describes a reasonably happy background and claims an active heterosexual interest.

Subj: Pay entry base date; establishment of

1. Your pay entry base date has been established as:

16 July 1951

2. It was computed on the basis of the following service:

(XX) Enlisted USN	( ) Enlisted USNR	( )
( ) Warrant USN	( ) Warrant USNR	( )
( ) Commissioned USN	(XX) Commissioned USNR	( )

3. Retain the original of this letter in your officer service record until the Navy or Naval Reserve Register carries this date. Furnish necessary certified copies to verify your service for pay purposes.

4. The pay entry base date is the actual date of commencement of service if all service has been continuous. If service has been broken, it is the hypothetical date upon which service would have begun had all service been continuous. To establish this hypothetical date, the total of all prior creditable service is subtracted from the date of commencement of continuous naval service.

DIRECTOR OF GUIDANCE

LOYALTY CERTIFICATE FOR PERSONNEL OF THE ARMED FORCES

INSTRUCTIONS ON THE USE OF THIS FORM

The Department of Defense has the authority to establish and promulgate detailed procedures to implement the national policy relating to loyalty of persons entering on duty with the Armed Forces. This has been determined by appropriate authority to include restrictions as to membership in or association with certain organizations and of certain standards of conduct. If Federal Constitutional Privilege against self-crimination; i.e., the making of a statement which will expose you to criminal trial, is claimed about all or any part of any conduct, membership or association in question you may so claim by stating in the space indicated "Federal Constitutional Privilege is Claimed" or "Federal Constitutional Privilege is Claimed as to——" describing the specific part of any conduct, membership or association about which claim is made.

Concealment of, misrepresentation as to, or failure to divulge in full, conduct or associations of the character set forth in the provisions, at the time of execution of these certificates in any component of the Department of Defense may constitute grounds for discharge, separation or other disposition of personnel, and action shall be taken by the Armed Forces for causing trial before a general court martial, or the facts will be made known to appropriate civil authorities, as the law may provide in such cases. Upon indication that any person has misrepresented, concealed, or failed to divulge in full previous conduct or associations of the character set forth, the Service having responsibility thereof shall take appropriate action.

Consequently, you must read the following provisions as to membership in or association with certain organizations and as to standards of conduct very carefully and be sure you understand them. If there is anything which you do not understand in either of these sets of provisions or in the certifications to be made, ask a commissioned officer to explain them to you. When you are certain that you understand both the provisions and the certificates, complete the certificates and sign them in the presence of a witnessing officer. Penalties for making a false statement may be very severe.

PROVISIONS AS TO STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

1. Conduct which may be considered as establishing reasonable grounds for invoking appropriate penalties shall include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

a. Sabotage, espionage, or attempts or preparations therefor, or intimate and sympathetic associations with or voluntary assistance to persons who the subject of investigation has reasonable cause to believe may be spies or saboteurs.

b. Treason, sedition, or writings and acts which can reasonably be considered as intended to encourage seditious or treasonable opinions or actions.

c. Advocacy of revolution or of force or violence to alter the existing constitutional form of government of the United States; advocacy of revolution or of force or violence to bring about economic, political, or social change.

d. Intentional unauthorized disclosure to any person under circumstances which may indicate disloyalty to the United States, of documents or information of a classified or non-public character.

e. Acting, attempting to act, or knowingly failing to act when such conduct is calculated to serve the interests of another government in preference to the interests of the United States of America.

I CERTIFY, AS REGARDS THE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT, THAT:

1. I HAVE READ THE INSTRUCTIONS ON THE USE OF THIS FORM AND I UNDERSTAND THEM.

2. I HAVE READ THE PROVISIONS APPLYING TO THE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT AND I UNDERSTAND THEM.

3. IF I HAVE ENGAGED IN ANY SUCH CONDUCT, I HAVE SO INDICATED BY DESCRIBING IN THE STATEMENT BELOW THE NATURE THEREOF.

4. IF I HAVE NOT ENGAGED IN ANY SUCH CONDUCT, I HAVE SO INDICATED BY WRITING "NONE" OR "NONE TO MY KNOWLEDGE" IN THE STATEMENT BELOW.

INSTRUCTIONS: Evaluation should not be based upon general impressions; it should be based upon actual, observed performance. The mark given in one trait should not influence the mark given in another trait. Men can be expected to vary in strength from one trait to another. Complete and careful observation should support a mark in each one of the sixteen listed traits.

The following is a step by step procedure for using this form:

1. Consider the first trait listed in the left column.
2. Read the descriptive phrases listed to the right of the trait.
3. Decide which of these descriptive phrases best describes the individual.
4. Mark the individual in one of the boxes under the most fitting descriptive phrase.
   a. These boxes run from the least favorable at the left, to the most favorable at the right.
5. Repeat this same procedure for each of the listed traits, keeping in mind that each trait should be considered separately, and that the mark in one trait should not influence the mark in another trait. Also keep in mind that the majority of personnel can be expected to fit into the middle or average category.
6. Do not hesitate to check "not observed" where the performance of the petty officer being evaluated has not been observed in any trait or when the trait is not applicable with reference to a particular job or rate.
7. Now in the space indicated in the lower half of the back page, make a brief comment describing any general impressions you have of the individual; indicate the degree to which you feel the individual is qualified for officer status; indicate your recommendation regarding reenlistment. If this recommendation is negative, include reasons in comments. If the individual has outstanding ability in some technical specialty so state and identify the specialty.

INSTRUCTIONS: Evaluation should not be based upon general impressions; it should be based upon actual, observed performance. The mark given in one trait should not influence the mark given in another trait. Men can be expected to vary in strength from one trait to another. Complete and careful observation should support a mark in each one of the sixteen listed traits.

The following is a step by step procedure for using this form:

1. Consider the first trait listed in the left column.
2. Read the descriptive phrases listed to the right of the trait.
3. Decide which of these descriptive phrases best describes the individual.
4. Mark the individual in one of the boxes under the most fitting descriptive phrase.
   a. These boxes run from the least favorable at the left, to the most favorable at the right.
5. Repeat this same procedure for each of the listed traits, keeping in mind that each trait should be considered separately, and that the mark in one trait should not influence the mark in another trait. Also keep in mind that the majority of personnel can be expected to fit into the middle or average category.
6. Do not hesitate to check "not observed" where the performance of the petty officer being evaluated has not been observed in any trait or when the trait is not applicable with reference to a particular job or rate.
7. Now in the space indicated in the lower half of the back page, make a brief comment describing any general impressions you have of the individual; indicate the degree to which you feel the individual is qualified for officer status; indicate your recommendation regarding reenlistment. If this recommendation is negative, include reasons in comments. If the individual has outstanding ability in some technical specialty so state and identify the specialty.

(c) Upon indication that any person who has unsuccessfully sought admission to the Naval Service has misrepresented, concealed, or failed fully to divulge previous conduct or associations of the character set forth above, the Command having cognizance thereof may present the facts to appropriate law enforcement officers of any jurisdiction whose laws have been thereby infringed. Upon discovery of such fraudulent certification subsequent to enlistment or appointment, the Chief of Naval Personnel may, in his discretion, direct either such summary and drastic procedures as may otherwise be provided by law, or such other action as the surrounding circumstances may require.

You must read these instructions very carefully and be sure you understand them.
